COACHES' PROFILES

PAUL ARSENAULT HEAD COACH

One of the most respected coaches in Canada, Paul has amassed 11 league titles in 14 years as head coach at Sir George, Loyola and Concordia. Three years ago he guided the Stingers to an unprecedented 43-3-1 record and received his second C.I.A.U. "Coach of the Year" award. Paul, who also is an instructor in the Bio-Physical Education program, has an overall record of 317-136-33. This past season, the Stingers posted a 25-15-3 for their third consecutive QUAA championship since the merger of Loyola and Sir George. In addition to his national acclaim, coach Arsenault has been picked as Conference Coach of the Year on three different occasions.

Paul has been selected to coach the Canadian National Student team, along with University of Toronto's, Tom Watt and University of Alberta's, Claire Drake.

A Prince Edward Island native, he is a graduate in Physical Education from the University of New Brunswick and earned his Masters at the University of Oregon. He is married and resides with his wife, Kathy and daughter Klay in Pointe Claire.

BOB PHILIP ASSISTANT COACH

Former Sir George hockey standout and assistant coach under Paul Arsenault at Sir George, Bob became head coach at Sir George in 1972, when coach Arsenault moved to Loyola. Philip led the Georgians to the National finals in 1974, where they lost to the University of Waterloo in overtime.

A graduate in Commerce from Sir George, Bob is Intramural Director of Concordia. He is married and resides with his wife, Linda in Pointe Claire.
